Panthers defeated the all ladies Academy A to move to the top of the division. Failand B's win against Yate A took them into second place, Milan Dragojovic being unbeaten in his first two matches. Three from Neil Wrigglesworth for Knowle A enabled them to narrowly defeat their B side and move to third spot.

A strong Brigands team proved too much for Cobras and they moved to fourth place. Cobras gained a valuable draw with Yate A despite three from Alan Smith. Two maximums for Steve Hall enabled Bristol A to defeat Almonds A and Academy A to move up a very competitive division.

Division 1

Leaders, Ocelots, remained unbeaten as they had a big win over fourth placed Winterbourne A. Second placed Almonds C whitewashed Portishead A to move within three sets of Ocelots. Third and fourth placed Nomads and Adders not surprisingly drew. A three straight maximum for Kevin Phillips gave Page A a draw against Hercules.

Division 2

Bristol E held leaders, KCC A, to a draw with no maximums achieved. Two wins for Failand C over struggling Knowle D and KCC B took them into second place, Will Hollingworth taking two possibles. Rattlers win against Bobcats saw them into fourth spot.

Civets defeated Fromeside C and with only two players got the better of KCC B and with matches in hand could threaten the leaders. Not a good week for Warriors as they drew with Knowle D and were beaten by Stokedene whose position is misleading owing to the number of outstanding matches they have.

Division 3

Almonds D lost their unbeaten record and top spot as they went down to Fromeside B for whom Martin Lewis took three. Fromeside also defeated Olympus to move into first place. Gladiators narrowly defeated Westbury B to move into third spot one set behind Almonds D.

Karen Wakefield won all three for Pumas in their draw with Almonds E to keep them in touch at the lower end of the division. Congresbury gained their first win of the season defeating Olympus.

Division 4

Three from John Ratajczak gave leaders, Raiders, a valuable win against second placed Portishead C who lost their unbeaten record. Veteran Ron Beynon took all three to give Portishead C a draw with Mambas who will certainly be in contention at the end of the season.

Third placed Page C went down to Almonds H (who think they are Almonds G) still it was only their second match. In the battle of the Failands, the D side defeated the E side who also lost to Beavers. Dean Leppier making an unusually poor start to his season but no doubt the best is yet to come.

Division 5

Leaders Yate D, whitewashed Yatton to edge away from second placed Almonds G who defeated Yatton. Graham Budd lost his unbeaten record to Richard Clark when Pythons were held to a draw by Bristol H who had a big win over Avspol to take fourth spot. With two players Avspol managed a draw with Page B thanks to three from Rick Bradford. Pegasus had a close win over Longwell, David Wood taking all three for Pegasus.

Division 6

Ninjas' big win against Vipers took them further ahead at the top of the division. Boost comfortably beat struggling Page D but second placed Tigers defeated them so reducing their threat to the leaders. Winterbourne B, thanks to three from Dave Minnett narrowly defeated Leopards.

Division 7

Merlins continued their triumphant way with a win against Fromeside D and head the division, their top two players having only lost three sets between them. Second place Bristol F surprisingly went down to lowly KCC C. Knowle F went down to their G team as junior Niall Mordecai took all three. However, their narrow win over Shoguns took them into third place. Page F in fourth place narrowly lost to Mints who owe thanks to three from Terry Sloper.

Bristol G monopolised the results this week with wins against Fromeside D and two player Shoguns, a draw against Knowle G and a loss to Terra. They move to fifth place having played the most matches in the division.

Division 8

Tim Coles continued his unbeaten season as hundred percent Portishead G defeated Eagles to head the division. Page G, also a hundred percent, had a big win over Page H to retain second place. Kestrels too had a big win against Portishead H to hold third place. A strong Cheetahs team defeated Typhoons who were without unbeaten Zhiru Zheng. KCC D defeated Westbury E, Peter Cook taking all three, and move into joint fourth place with Cheetahs.
