

BRISTOL & DISTRICT TABLE TENNIS 2006-7

Week 01

Premier

New arrivals, Filton Academy, started the season with a big win over a strong Panthers side but thanks to Steve Hall Bristol B gave them a closer match. Bristol B were then held to a draw by Failand B, thanks to Dave Reeves' win over Steve Hall in five. Knowle A without Eddie Roofe, who has transferred to Filton Academy, went down to Failand A.

Division 1

Relegated last season, Cobras started with a whitewash of Knowle D who were newly promoted. Knowle D followed up with a win over Civil Service Nomads (previously KCC A). Nomads took their revenge on Cleeve by defeating Rattlers. Bristol C defeated two player Portishead A.

Division 2

Newly promoted Fromeside C were whitewashed by Almonds C but recorded a win over Almonds B. Page A had a comfortable win over a three player Hawks! Failand C defeated newcomers to the division, KCC C. Civets started the season with two wins against Stokedene and Failand C.

Division 3

Yate C won a tight match against Civil Service C who then defeated two player Westbury B. Westbury B had a very flattering win over Olympus when six sets went to five and three others to four. Olympus then defeated Westbury D..

Division 4

Beavers suffered the fate of most of the newly promoted teams when they were comfortably defeated by Pegasus, who in turn were defeated by Page C. Portishead C, relegated last season started with a loss against Bristol D and a draw with their D team.

Division 5

AVSPOL narrowly missed promotion last season, started well by whitewashing Page D but then lost to Cougars who had previously been well beaten by Yatton. Newly promoted Mambas started with two wins against Bristol H and Yate D who snatched the division title from them last season.

Division 6

Westbury C won a two a side match against Page E. Knowle E who narrowly missed promotion last season started with big wins over Bristol F and newly promoted Pythons. Michelle Leonard taking the scalp of Graham Budd. Relegated Almonds F started with a loss and a draw despite John Ruderham being undefeated. They drew with Boost and lost to Leopards when Andy Wakefield had a 98 point four set win over Aylwyn Powell.

Division 7

Vipers had a big win against Kestrels and followed it with another big win over Portishead G. Winterbourne A defeated Terra who went on to defeat newly promoted Page F who defeated fellow promotion team Portishead G. Newcomers Mints, narrowly lost to Merlins. Bristol G, despite three from Dave Payne went down to KCC D

Division 8

Newcomers Page I suffered two defeats against Knowle F and Cheetahs. With more matches for experience they will certainly achieve better results. William Zhu took all three for Almondsbury H but couldn't prevent them losing to Eagles.
